CHRISTIAN UNITY: The year 2017 marked the fifth centenary of the Protestant Reformation, which Martin Luther inaugurated with his famous posting of his 95 theses on the church door at Wittenberg. Come and join us on January 31 for Evening Prayer in the Worship Center at 7:00pm to pray for Christian unity. Our guest preacher will be Pastor Lauren Miller of Peace Lutheran Church and members of that congregation will be coming with her for Evening Prayer.

THEATER 'N' THEOLOGY: Come join us at our next TNT, which takes place on Candlemas Day, Friday, February 2, beginning promptly at 7:00pm. All are welcome to come to our Incarnation Movie Theater (the “Stone Chapel”) with comfortable seating and large projection. After the movie (the “Theology” part), we discuss the film’s relevance to our life in Christ and note the action of God’s mercy. Our Candlemas Day feature is another film version of the life of Jesus of Nazareth, the 2015 film Killing Jesus. Stars Kelsey Grammer and Haaz Sleiman leading a largely Middle Eastern cast. Facilitated by Fr. Gregory. All are welcome. Come watch a great movie with your brothers and sisters in Christ!

EVENING OF REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Saturday, February 3, at 7:00pm in the Worship Center

+ The Pastoral Council invites you to refresh your personal faith journey, as we gain new and unexpected insights into familiar gospel stories.

Grace Together, let's rediscover the profound – and sometimes hilarious – human encounters with the extraordinary man, Jesus Christ. This event is based upon last Fall's custom-built Incarnation Leadership Retreat. Past participants described this event as:

personally inspiring

spiritually renewing

well-presented

fast paced and fun!

Please join us for an evening of gospel grace.

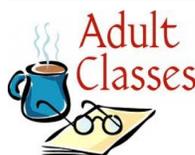

For additional information about this Evening of Reflection, please consult our parish web site www.incarnationparish.org join us....

We welcome all visitors and invite you to join us in the Parish Hall for coffee & donuts after the 9:00am Sunday Mass.

FIRST RECONCILIATION REMINDER to Parents of Christian Formation 2nd grade and Candidate students! The First Reconciliation Service for your children is Saturday, February 3 at 10:00am. Please arrive a few minutes early so the children can sit quietly in prayer before the beginning of the service. Please contact Lori (lorib@incarnationparish.org) with any questions.

HAITI MINISTRY MARDI GRAS BAKE SALE: Lent is drawing nearer, so now is the time to savor all of the sweets in your house! Incarnation's Haiti ministry will be sponsoring a Mardi Gras bake sale February 10/11, the last weekend before Lent. If you would like to donate any baked goods, please contact Sheila (sheilah@incarnationparish.org) in the Parish Office. Thank you for your generosity!

ADULT FORMATION OPPORTUNITY:

What does it mean to call oneself a Christian? What are the distinguishing marks of a Christian worldview? On Sunday, February 4, between the morning Masses (starting about 10:15am), Father Gregory's adult Sunday school topic will be On Being An Adult Christian, Part II in the Parish Activity Center. Attendance at Part I is not required to attend. Grab a cup of coffee and come on over! All are welcome. Like all good Catholics, BYOB: Bring your own Bible!

The elderly bring with them memory and the wisdom of experience, which warns us not to foolishly repeat our past mistakes. Young people call us to renewed and expansive hope, for they represent new directions for humanity and open us up to the future, lest we cling to a nostalgia for structures and customs which are no longer life-giving in today's world.

--Pope Francis, The Joy of the Gospel #108

THE PREGNANCY CENTERS NEED YOU: Is God calling you to serve Him in a new way this year? If you have a heart for helping women and families, and can volunteer 3-4 hrs/week, becoming a counselor at the Pregnancy Center may be for you. Training will teach you how to counsel someone in a crisis pregnancy and support them through it. Classes are fun and counseling is as simple as listening, loving, and allowing God to take the lead. There is a $25 fee to cover materials and all 6 sessions are mandatory. Call/email today for more info and to sign up! Jillian@VirginiaPregnancy.org | 434.979.4516

Training is at the Albemarle Center, 9:00am-1:00pm:

- Monday, February 12th
- Thursday, February 15th
- Monday, February 19th
- Thursday, February 22nd
- Monday, February 26th
- Thursday, March 1st

Not sure about counseling? The Downtown Charlottesville Center needs volunteer receptionists too!

ULTREYA: The next Ultreya will be Sunday, February 18, at 2:00pm at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church. The topic is: New Year: Fresh Perspective on Group Reunion. Please wear name tags and crosses, bring either heavy appetizers, luncheon finger foods, or dessert, and arrive early so we can grab a bite and begin promptly at 2:00pm. Our primary focus for this meeting will entail a panel discussion on enhancing group reunion, with the ultimate goal of increasing apostolic action within our respective communities and Parishes. Audience participation will be encouraged. We very much welcome your reflective input and comments. The list of discussion questions for you to ponder before the Ultreya are: What in Group Reunion has value to you? Why are you grouping? What has been your best experience? What has been your most challenging experience? Who will be on the panel? Tom Craig (Incarnation); Jerry Babral (St. John's); Cindi McInay (Sts. Peter and Paul); Donna Ostrowski (Incarnation); Monica Waugh (Shepherd of the Hills); and Bill Wilkes (Blessed Sacrament). We will introduce the Women's Cursillo Team at this Ultreya.

WOMEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND: April 12-15, at Camp Overlook (near Harrisonburg). The purpose of the Catholic Cursillo Movement is to support people in living out their faith in their everyday lives. It is an inspiring 3-day retreat led by a dedicated team of lay adults and a Catholic priest from our area. Registered Catholic parishioners are encouraged to submit an application by March 31. You must be sponsored by a person who has made a Cursillo weekend previously. You may contact Karen and Roy Norville at valleycursillo@gmail.com to arrange a sponsor for you. For info/application, visit: www.valleycursillo.com.

The next Men's Cursillo Weekend will be held October 18-21.

From the Director of Worship:

I want to express a personal thank you to ALL who were involved in making the Pastoral Visit and Eucharistic Liturgy with our new Bishop Barry C. Knestout, a true experience of Church!

Thanks to the choir and instrumentalists for leading us in liturgical prayer. As one parishioner shared with me: "Bishop Knestout and the many visitors who came to celebrate with us were able to experience just what makes our parish community special. So many members of our parish gave of their time, talent, and treasure to welcome our new Bishop and it was a memorable evening."

As Director of Worship, I am so grateful to all of you for your ministry!

*Peace and blessings,
Deacon Chris*

"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties." Let us learn to calm our anxieties about our spouses by exploring each other during a Worldwide Marriage Encounter (WWME) weekend. The next weekend is March 2-4 in Herndon, VA. Early sign up is recommended. For more information visit our website at: <https://renewmarriage-vasouth.org/> or contact us at applications@renewmarriage-vasouth.org or 757-690-1369.

Stewardship, A Way of Life

"All that we do reflects Christ as we go forth in love and service."

If we, as parents, practice stewardship, we are not only fulfilling the words of the gospel and giving meaning to our lives, but we are living examples of Christ to our children. We are called by Jesus, both adults and children, to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, to practice hospitality, to clothe the naked, to care for the sick, to help people who are not free, and to be a blessing to others.

Today we are inviting all the children and youth of our parish to become stewards of our faith, and join the hundreds of families who support our parish ministries. Over the next few weeks, we will have boxes of envelopes for our children and youth to take home. Each box contains 52 weekly offertory envelope, which we ask you to return in the Sunday offertory collection. We also ask you to print your name and address on the first few envelopes so we can add you to our list of stewards.

Stewardship means "becoming partners in God's work." It means investing your time, talent and treasure to support the mission of our Church. Again we invite the children and youth of Church of the Incarnation to be a part of this effort to bring the concept of stewardship to the entire community.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Patrick Drury: patrickd@incarnationparish.org

ANTIOCH SLEEP HOMES: Youth ministry's annual Antioch retreat for high school students will be held Friday-Sunday, March 9-11, 2018 at the Charlottesville Catholic School. We're in need of families to provide sleep homes the nights of March 9 & 10. If you're interested in hosting a small group of boys or girls for our retreat, or if you have any questions about the details, please contact Patrick.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY: The shawl serves as a mantle and sign of God's healing presence to strengthen someone who is weary, to ease their suffering and to comfort them when in pain or when they feel alone. The shawls are made with love by parishioners. Prayer shawls are available in the Parish Office. There is no cost for the shawl.

WE CELEBRATE THE LIFE OF OUR PARISH!

Please let us know if you are new to the parish, are moving from it, are celebrating a significant event or are in need of prayers.

JUSTICE AND CHARITY MINISTRY

Sheila Herlihy: sheila@incarnationparish.org

NONVIOLENCE WORKSHOP: SAVE THE DATE! We are happy to host Laurie and John Gagne for a talk about nonviolence on Saturday, March 10. This event will be held in conjunction with Casa Alma, and will have lots of ways to interact and learn. More details to come in the next few weeks!

FOOD MINISTRY INVITATION: For our food ministry to function, we need people in a variety of roles. If you are interested in any aspect of the ministry, contact Sheila in the Parish Office. If you'd rather donate material goods, we accept all food items in the basket in the Narthex, (along with grocery bags, paper and plastic). The item of the week is an easy way to add something small to your grocery list, and donate something that is very needed by our ministry. This week, our item of the week is cereal.

COFFEE AND CONVERSATIONS: Our next afternoon of Coffee and Conversations, allowing us to experience the full richness of our multi-lingual community, will be held on February 25 between 3:00 and 4:15pm. This is a great way to get to know native Spanish speakers in our parish, and appreciate the universal nature of the Body of Christ. No language experience is needed, because interpreters will be at every table. If you're interested in helping with interpretation, food, or setup and cleanup, please contact Sheila!

GREEN TEAM EnvironMINUTE: During the cold of winter, God gives us fire and shelter to keep us warm. Seal windows and doors to conserve heat in your house, allowing nature to maintain its balance outside, and keeping your energy bill down.

JUSTICE CORNER: The affordable housing committee of our Justice Ministry has chosen to focus on how we can improve rental housing in the city of Charlottesville. Currently, it would take a minimum wage worker three full time jobs to afford an average two-bedroom apartment. We have to stand up with the people overlooked by our community!

SHARE THE JOURNEY: Being new is always intimidating, and being an immigrant in a whole new country and culture can be even more overwhelming. If you are interested in helping out with recent immigrants, both in our parish and in other organizations, please reach out to Sheila for opportunities!

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BUILD DAYS: In these cold days, it's good to remember the importance of organizations like Habitat! A representative of Habitat for Humanity will be coming to Incarnation after Masses on February 10 & 11, so you can find out more information if you're interested. If you already want to get involved with a build day (no construction experience necessary) the parish is providing a build crew on March 3, and May 5. Please check out sign up sheets in the Narthex for details and to put your name down!

VISIT: Charlottesville Catholic School is now accepting applications for Pre-K through 8th grade for the 2018-19 school year. Has your child ever wondered what it would be like to be a student at CCS? If so, we invite them to do just that and be an Archangel for a Day on Monday, January 22! To register to spend the day with us, please visit the website at www.cvillecatholic.org or email admissions@cvillecatholic.org for more information.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK: Since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. This year, the celebration runs from January 28 through February 3. Our own Charlottesville Catholic School will take part in this national celebration by participating in various activities throughout the week. Please join the faculty, staff, and students of Charlottesville Catholic School as they kick off the week with an Open House on January 28 from 1:00 – 3:00pm. We invite you to drop by to tour our beautiful campus and learn more about all that Charlottesville Catholic School has to offer everyone in our great community. For more information about CCS or Catholic Schools Week activities, contact Admissions Coordinator, Katrina Kuhn (k.kuhn@cvillecatholic.org) or call 434.964.0400.
