It's time to plan for the 2015 Litnic season! Litnics are a venerable Incarnation summer tradition; they are Liturgic picnics, and here's how they work. Someone who wants to host a litnic calls the Parish Office and signs up for one of the posted available dates. They receive parish guidelines for hosting a litnic which must be read carefully. Litnics are particularly intended for Catholics in the host's neighborhood, but all parishioners are invited to litnics. A Mass is celebrated in the home or the yard (the lit) followed by a potluck supper (the nic). Call the Parish Office now and sign up! Available dates: June 24, July 29 and, August 4.

Scheduled Litnic

Tuesday, June 16, at 6:30pm Jon & Carolyn Hexter will host a litnic in their home in Greenwood. Please call (540) 456-8710 to let them know you will attend and to ask for directions.

The Knights of Columbus will accept donations after every Mass on June 20/21 for their annual KOVAR collection. KOVAR stands for Knights of Virginia Assisting People with Intellectual Disabilities. 100 percent of your donation will provide financial assistance through grants to organizations that train and assist people with intellectual disabilities. Knights will be handing out Tootsie Rolls to the children and Rosary rings. Thanks for your generosity.

COME OUT AND CHEER FOR TEAM INCARNATION!

ALL ACTIVITIES CANCELED JUNE 20-26

Church of the Incarnation will host the Diocesan Work Camp from June 20-26. Students throughout the diocese will join together for a week of faith and service and Incarnation will become their home base. All classes, groups, and bible studies are canceled for the week. Thank you!

SEEKING GARDEN HELP: We need consistent summer help in Incarnation's community garden. This ministry allows us to participate in cultivating and caring for God's creation, and also benefits our parish food ministry. Plants need water, weeding, and harvesting almost every day, so we are looking for people to help out once a week (or every other week, if that is what your schedule allows). If you are interested in helping long-term, please contact Sheila in the Parish Office (973-4381).

*Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
Thursday, 1:00 – 9:00pm*

Our next TNT (Theater 'N' Theology) takes place on Friday, June 19, beginning promptly at 7:00pm. All are welcome to come watch a movie in our Incarnation Movie Theater (the "Stone Chapel") with comfortable seating and large projection. Afterwards (the "Theology" part), we discuss the movie's relevance to our life in Christ. Our June feature is the 1980 film White Mama. It's about a poor, elderly white woman living in a tenement in a black ghetto who takes in a foster teenager, and the two of them form a mutually beneficial relationship: he provides her companionship and protection, and she becomes the mother he never had. Directed by Jackie Cooper, the film stars Bette Davis and Eileen Heckart. Childcare can be available for a modest fee if reserved at the Parish Office by June 15. Facilitated by Fr. Gregory. Come watch a great movie with your brothers and sisters in Christ!

The practice of placing sacred images in churches so that they be venerated by the faithful is to be maintained. Nevertheless their number should be moderate and their relative positions should reflect right order. For otherwise the Christian people may find them incongruous and they may foster devotion of doubtful orthodoxy.

ORDINARY TIME: SUMMER

What do the words Ordinary Time mean? Dorothy Day said, "The words 'Ordinary Time' in our prayer books put me in a state of confusion and irritation. To me, no time is ordinary." She was right. The Ordinary in 'Ordinary Time' refers to ordinal-counted-time, not to a lack of something to celebrate. The Roman document, General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, says: "Apart from those seasons having their own distinctive character [Advent, Christmastime, Lent, Triduum, and Eastertime], 33 or 34 weeks remain in the yearly cycle that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects."

How do we celebrate the mystery of Christ in all its aspects? We gather every Sunday. Sunday is our original feast day. Christians have gathered every Sunday-the day of Christ's resurrection, the first today of the week, ever since there were Christians.

When we gather on Sundays in Ordinary Time, as always, we hear the scriptures proclaimed. The church reads straight through the gospel of the year, either Matthew, Mark or Luke, each week often picking up where we left off last week (we read John during Lent and Easter and on feasts.) The first readings, from the first testament of the Bible, have been chosen for their relationship to the gospel passages. Many voices are heard throughout summer Ordinary Time. We also read through some of the letters of the second testament of the Bible. The mystery of Christ in all its aspects unfolds.

What is the heart of our Sunday celebration? We do our eucharist; that is, we do our thanksgiving. We praise and thank God for all creation; we pray for the whole world, as we remember Christ's life, death and resurrection. We share the bread and wine, the body and blood. We are sent forth to the body and blood of Christ in our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, our towns, our cities, our neighborhoods.

"What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is not ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living." (Saint Andrew Bible Missal, Brooklyn: William J. Hirten Co., 1982.)
