PACEM (People and Congregations Engaged in Ministry)

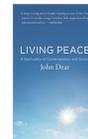

It doesn't seem possible but fall and cold evenings are fast approaching. We will be hosting our PACEM homeless guests from Nov. 14 to Nov. 28. We want to turn the PAC into a comfortable, safe and caring place for our guests. PACEM is a great opportunity to serve in so many different ways. We need daily lead volunteers, cooks, meal servers, overnight volunteers, setup and take down folks, sandwich makers, hard boiled egg cookers, orange juice and fresh fruit providers, and laundry volunteers. We need volunteers for evening activities and spending time with our guests. There are lots of ways to pitch in and help. Sign ups will start the weekend of Oct. 24 and the last day for signups will be Nov. 8.

We would like to offer the men haircuts. If there are any barbers or hair stylists in our parish who could serve these men contact Tom Eckman 295-3015 or Sheila Herlihy 434.973.4381 x119

We are also looking for any ideas and people to share their talents to make this the best experience for these men. How about a stretching class or Health and nutrition class, or art class ?

Father Gregory will be leading a new reading group, beginning on Wednesday, October 28, at 7:30pm in the Stone Chapel. This new reading group will meet every other Wednesday after that; so, for example, the second meeting will be on November 11. The book we will be reading is Living Peace: A Spirituality of Contemplation and Action by Father John Dear. For John Dear, a priest of the Diocese of Monterey and respected leader of the ecumenical peace movement, the spiritual life is a combination of contemplation and action, of maintaining inner peace and projecting that peace into the greater world. It is the spirituality exemplified by the lives of Gandhi, Martin Luther King, Jr., Mother Teresa, the Dalai Lama, and others throughout history who remained true to the highest ideals while addressing the most difficult problems and conflicts of the real world. As a tireless advocate for social justice and human rights, Dear has followed that path in his own life, and in Living Peace he describes his journey. Breaking down the life of peace into three parts -- an inner journey, a public journey, and the journey of all humanity -- he shares the spiritual practices that have sustained him and teaches readers how to integrate these practices into their own lives. The book can be obtained from The Sycamore Tree, 2246 Ivy Rd., 529-8270.

FAMILIES: Are we "filled with awe and contemplation" for all living things, as Pope Francis urges us to be? Outdoor exploration, games, prayer, and refreshments for adults and children. Please register by Oct. 30.

Mass of Remembrance

On Wed., Nov. 4, at 7:30pm, we will have our Annual Mass of Remembrance. This is the occasion when we take time to remember and celebrate the lives of those relatives and friends who have died during the past year. If you have lost a family member or close friend since last November, we invite you to call the Parish Office 973-4381 with the name to be included in our Book of Remembrance. You may also bring a framed photo of your loved one, to be placed at the foot of the altar (30 minutes) prior to the Liturgy. All parishioners are invited to attend this liturgy in support of those who have lost loved ones. Reception to follow, please bring a finger food to share.

Exactly as Christian communion between men on their earthly pilgrimage brings us closer to Christ, so our community with the saints joins us to Christ, from whom as from its fountain and head issues all grace and the life of the People of God itself. It is most fitting, therefore, that we love those friends and co-heirs of Jesus Christ who are also our brothers and outstanding benefactors, and that we give due thanks to God for them, "humbly invoking them, and having recourse to their prayers, aid and help in obtaining from God through his Son, Jesus Christ, Our Lord, our only Redeemer and Savior, the benefits we need."

--Vatican II, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church #50

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR:

The following is an excerpt from an article, PLANNING A CATHOLIC FUNERAL by Father Anthony Marques, that appeared in The Catholic Virginian on October 27, 2014:

"When it comes to planning a funeral, there are often questions about cremation. The Church explains that, 'Although cremation is now permitted, it does not enjoy the same value as burial of the body. The Church clearly prefers and urges that the body of the deceased be present for the funeral rites, since the presence of the human body better expresses the values in those rites.'

"Theologically speaking, the presence of the body is a clearer sign of the resurrection. Psychologically speaking, the presence of the body gives the family a better sense of closure, since the body is more closely identified with the deceased person.

"If cremation must occur, it should be done after the celebration of the Funeral Mass. The cremated remains must either be buried or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. Ashes must not be scattered or kept in the home. Owing to the dignity of human remains, a person's ashes must be safeguarded in a sacred place."

When a beloved member of our faith family, Rose Chioni, died, she bequeathed as a gift to the parish the casket that was used for her Mass of Christian Burial (her body was cremated afterwards, because it was necessary for the place where her remains were interred). This casket is available to be used by those who need to have the body of their deceased cremated after the Mass of Christian Burial.

"Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" Should the Lord direct these words to you in prayer, how will you respond? As a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Call Fr. Michael G. Boehling at (804)359-5661, or write: mboehling@richmonddiocese.org.

JUSTICE AND CHARITY MINISTRY

Sheila Herlihy: sheilah@incarnationparish.org

GARDEN WORK DAY: The garden season is nearly over, but we still have work to do in Incarnation's garden. We need to harvest sweet potatoes for the food ministry, as well as get the last of our summer crops. We'll be having a Saturday work-day sometime in November, but if you'd like to help us get a jump-start on things, please contact Sheila in the office! ALSO: if you have leaves in your yard please consider shredding them and bagging them up for the garden ministry. This helps keep the soil healthy over the winter.

FOOD MINISTRY GATHERING & TRAINING: We have parishioners of ALL ages involved in Food Ministry. Our first annual overview and training is October 24 after the 5:30pm Mass. This is a chance to spend time in fellowship with others who participate in different aspects of the ministry, as well as an explanation of how each job fits into the broader picture. Please join us and learn why this kind of ministry is central to our faith! Please come if you are currently involved in food ministry, or if you are interested in learning more.

CHRISTIAN APPALACHIAN PROJECT (CAP) FALL CLOTHES DONATIONS- LAST WEEKEND: We are conducting our annual fall clothes collection in support of the Christian Appalachian Project in Eastern Kentucky. CAP provides services to 14 of the nation's poorest counties and are always in need of fall and winter clothes, especially sweaters, jackets, and coats. The clothes collection will end the weekend of Oct. 17/18. Please put a "CAP" label on your donations and drop them off in the Narthex. Thank you in advance for your continued support of this parish outreach program. If you have any questions, contact Dianne Gagliano at 964-1939.

GREEN TEAM'S EnvironMINUTE: God's gifts to us are often more abundant than we realize. To cut down on the number of trees we use for paper, set your printers to automatically print double sided, saving up to half of your paper usage in a year.

FOOD MINISTRY: As the weather gets colder, many of us are remembering those in need of life's basic necessities. If you want to help out with the tasks of the ministry, please contact Sheila in the Parish Office. If you'd rather donate material goods, we accept all food items in the basket in the Narthex, (along with paper bags and egg cartons). If you need inspiration, the item of the week is an easy thing to add to your shopping list. You can bring this item, or anything else you want to donate, to church Sunday. This week, our item is 13 oz. cans of chicken.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY: Incarnation is partnering with other Catholics in the area, as well as Habitat for Humanity, to create a house in honor of Pope Francis Our next build day will be November 7, so mark your calendar now to participate! No construction experience is necessary, and this is a great way to spend a Saturday living our faith and doing tangible work in the community. We also need people to photograph the event, and provide lunch. Check out the sign up sheets in the Narthex and put yourself on the list to help build safe and decent homes for families in need.

P.A.C.E.M. TOILETRIES NEEDED: Incarnation will host the People and Congregations Engaged in Ministry (PACEM) Shelter for Charlottesville homeless men starting November 14. The Outreach Ministry does NOT have enough of the following items for all of the Shelter guests that are expected: Disposable Razors, Men's Deodorant, Dental Floss, Combs, Shaving Cream. Please help by donating one or all of the items above! Donations should be left in the collection basket in the Narthex. Thank You!
