"Christmas Messages for our Troops"

All seniors are welcome at the next luncheon meeting on Wed., November 9, in the Parish Activities Center (Stone Chapel).

At 1:00pm we will be writing Christmas messages to our deployed military troops.

Contact:

Ruth Parsons (ruthparson@aol.com) 434-202-1949, or Jacqui Cecalupo (sasse318@gmail.com) 434-962-9807.

RSVP by November 4, for food ordering purposes.

Hope to see you there!

Mass of Remembrance

On Wednesday, November 2, at 7:30pm, we will have our Annual Mass of Remembrance. This is the occasion when we take time to remember and celebrate the lives of those relatives and friends who have died during the past year. If you have lost a family member or close friend since last November, we invite you to call the Parish Office 973-4381 with the name to be included in our Book of Remembrance. You may also bring a framed photo of your loved one, to be placed at the foot of the altar (30 minutes) prior to the Liturgy. All parishioners are invited to attend this liturgy in support of those who have lost loved ones. Reception to follow, please bring a finger food to share.

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP: Don't forget to vote next Tuesday, November 8! This is a chance to promote our Catholic values in the public and political sphere.

Check out the Virginia Catholic Conference's web site (vacatholic.org) for information on the candidates, and a PDF of Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops.

The Big Clean-up

GARDEN CLEAN-UP: We'll be preparing our Incarnation community garden for winter on Saturday, November 12. Whether or not you had a garden plot this year, please join us at 9:00am to cover the plots so that they will be ready for planting in the spring!

PACEM: We will provide shelter for our homeless guests from Nov. 12 to Nov. 26 in the PAC. Signups will continue for PACEM until Nov 6 . Please sign up early. We want to turn the PAC into a comfortable, safe and caring place for our guests. PACEM is a great opportunity to minister to the men through Feeding, Serving and Spending time. We need daily "lead people", cooks, meal servers, overnight people, setup and take down folks, sandwich makers, hard boiled egg cookers, orange juice and milk providers, haircutters, and people to do laundry. We need help organizing evening activities and spending time with our guests. There are lots of ways to pitch in!

We need coats, and warm clothing for emergencies. You can drop off these off to Sheila, in the Parish Office.

SAFETY: We have created guidelines on how to interact with guests. There are copies of these guidelines on the signup table.

Remember this is a low barrier emergency shelter of last resort. We do not know the backgrounds of these men so children should be well supervised by adults and a single adult should not be left in a room alone. Let's have a wonderful hosting. God Bless you all.

PACEM POTLUCK & TRAINING: Thursday Nov. 10 there will be a Pot Luck at 6:30 in the PAC to learn more about the work of PACEM and also to train the Lead, Food Captains, Servers and all involved. We are also looking for any ideas to make this the best experience for these men. Please contact Tom Eckman 295-3015 or Sheila Herlihy 434.973.4381 x119 with any ideas.

Faith always remains something of a cross; it retains a certain obscurity which does not detract from the firmness of its assent. Some things are understood and appreciated only from the standpoint of this assent, which is a sister to love, beyond the range of clear reasons and arguments.

--Pope Francis, The Joy of the Gospel #42

“The Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.” Will you share in Christ’s saving mission as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Contact Fr. Michael G. Boehling, Vicar for Vocations, email: mboehling@richmonddiocese.org or call (804) 359-5661.

Bishop Francis DiLorenzo of Richmond and Bishop Paul Loverde of Arlington have issued a pre-election statement to guide Virginia Catholics before going into the voting booth on Nov. 8. They call on Catholics to carefully form their consciences, pray, learn the issues, consider candidates’ character and use principles of Catholic social teaching to guide them. See their statement in English and Spanish, as well as four principles of Catholic social teaching and other voter resources on the Virginia Catholic Conference website at www.vacatholic.org.

AN ACTION TOWARD FORGIVENESS: Parishioner, Gloria D’Alessandro will be presenting her talk called “AN ACTION TOWARD FORGIVENESS” at Holy Comforter Church on Sun., Nov. 13, from 9:45 to 10:45. We hear much about the need to forgive. We may recognize that we are called by Jesus to forgive. But how do we do that? As we close out this Jubilee Year of Mercy, come, hear a step-by-step approach that promises to bring you from anger and resentment to forgiveness and peace. You will receive a wonderful FREE gift to take home from Gloria to you!

SUNDAY’S WORD: You are invited to take part in a small group, Sunday’s Word, to discuss the week’s Mass readings. We will meet on Sundays through December 4 (not on Nov 27). The focus will be on the Sunday readings, reflecting on how they help teach us to live as Christians carrying out Christ’s mission to the world. Meetings are held between the two Sunday morning Masses, 10:20 to 11:20am, in the Library. Come to as many or as few sessions as you like. You don’t need to prepare anything, just join us with open mind and prayerful heart!

SAVE THE DATE! ALL SAINTS! On Sunday, November 6, we will be celebrating All Saints Day following the 9:00am Mass with food, games, and crafts in the Parish Hall and religious education classrooms. All are welcome to attend and children (and adults!) are welcome to dress up as their favorite Saint. We will need lots of hands to help with this event, so please contact Robyn Mauney at rmauney@gmail.com or Patrick Drury at patrickd@incarnationparish.com for more information on what you can do to help!

ALL SAINTS DAY - NOVEMBER 1

*Today we keep the festival of your holy city,
the heavenly Jerusalem, our mother.
Around your throne
the saints, our brothers and sisters,
sing your praise for ever.
Their glory fills us with joy,
and their communion with us in your church
gives us inspiration and strength
as we hasten on our pilgrimage of faith, eager to meet them.*

So we pray during the Mass of All Saints. We celebrate those who have made the long journey to the holy city, to Jerusalem, to the feast of heaven. The scriptures and prayers for the day tell us that we are part of that vast throng now standing before God’s throne in ceaseless praise. From the second reading: “I saw before me a huge crowd which no one could count from every nation, race, people and tongue . . . dressed in long white robes.” At our baptism, when we received our white robes, we became part of this great assembly. Indeed, every time we go to Mass, before we sing Holy, Holy, we recall that we sing God’s praise with “angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven.”

Who is this company and why is it so wonderful to be part of it? This is another way of asking, “What does the communion of saints mean?” It is not complicated. All the baptized, living and dead, across the generations, walk together, suffer together, sing together - not only those who have died, and not only those who lead heroic lives. Vincent Harding, writing in Sojourners magazine, put it this way: “What a wild company we belong to! These are wild people, persecuted people, going-out, not-knowing-where-they’re-going people.” For a picture of what the lives of saints look like, read the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12).

We may be full or part-time, live near or far away, have primary responsibility or help out occasionally. Whatever the situation, caregiving is rarely our only job. Yet it demands much sacrifice and ongoing adjustments to our own over-committed worlds. On good days and bad can we see God in it all? Call Shalom House Retreat Center at (804) 883-6149 for more info or to register for this retreat.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BUILD DAYS: Fall build days with Habitat are back! Especially during this year of mercy, we can participate in the Corporal Works of mercy by building safe houses and supporting this great organization. If you are interested in this or any other aspect of the ministry, contact Sheila. If you'd rather donate material goods, we accept all food items in the basket in the Narthex, (along with paper bags). 40 DAYS FOR LIFE - The 40 Days for Life Closing Rally will be Sunday, Nov. 6 at 12:00 noon, at 201 N. Hamilton St., Richmond. We will join with the national United Bus Tour as they wind down their visit to every state in our nation. If you have been meaning to come out to pray but never have, or have been just once or twice, please make the commitment to schedule an hour or more each week. We are the voices for the unborn who have no voice of their own, and no legal protection. Commonwealth Catholic Charities offers free, no-obligation information meetings for foster parenting and adopting. You'll have a chance to talk with an experienced CCC social worker, learn answers to your questions and hear more about the process. Call (434) 974-6880 for more information.

FALL & WINTER CLOTHING DRIVE ENDS NOV. 6: The Christian Appalachian Project (CAP) is an interdenominational, non-profit Christian organization committed to serving the impoverished people of the Appalachia through numerous programs.
