

January 10, 2018 Pastoral Council Meeting

Summary:

- Bishop Barry Knestout celebrated Mass with more than 600 Catholics at Incarnation parish, one of the first stops on his tour of the Richmond Diocese.
- Tom Eckman spoke to the Pastoral Council about the work of the PACEM Ministry as part of our "Incarnation in Action" series.
- An Evening of Reflection is being offered to all parishioners on Sat., Feb. 3, 7-9:00p.m. It will feature finger foods, door prizes and a walk through the Gospel of Mark.
- Father Gregory is offering a 23-hour retreat he developed for teens -- Inner Life -- to help expose them to our rich tradition of contemplative prayer. The first retreat will be for boys April 27-28 at Our Lady of the Angels Monastery.

(Parishioners are welcome to attend our Pastoral Council meetings. The next one is Wed., Feb. 7, at 7:30pm in the Conference Room)

Church of the Incarnation Pastoral Council Agenda February 7, 2018

Agenda

7:30 Opening Prayer/Reflection

7:35 Pastor's Report -- Fr. Gregory

7:45 Vicar's Report -- Fr. Jaime

7:50 Chair's Report -- Caroline Cook/Ed Robinson

- Bishop's Visit
- Evening of Reflection

8:30 Incarnation in Action featuring the Haiti Ministry -- Tom Campbell

8:45 Refreshments

- Thank You's -- Everyone

8:50 "Sin of Racism" Workshop -- Caroline

9:15 Hispanic Offertory Program update -- Roxana Roblero

9:25 Closing Prayer